"A Conversation with Dr. Steven Chu, U.S. Secretary of Energy"

June 3, 2009, Wednesday @ 4:15 p.m.

Northwest Building, Room B103
52 Oxford Street
Cambridge, MA

Dr. Steven Chu, distinguished scientist and co-winner of the Nobel Prize for Physics (1997), was appointed by President Obama as the 12th Secretary of Energy and sworn into office on January 21, 2009. Dr. Chu has devoted his recent scientific career to the search for new solutions to our energy challenges and stopping global climate change – a mission he continues with even greater urgency as Secretary of Energy. He is charged with helping implement President Obama’s ambitious agenda to invest in alternative and renewable energy, end our addiction to foreign oil, address the global climate crisis and create millions of new jobs.

This event is open to Harvard University ID card-holders only. IDs will be checked at the door. Seating is limited and on first-come, first-serve basis.
