Work this summer as a Teaching Assistant & Residential Counselor!

“Best job ever!”
—TA & Counselor, 2012

“I loved working for EPGY Summer Institutes!”
—TA & Counselor, 2012

Responsibilities include:

• Tutoring students and providing support to instructional staff
• Mentoring students from around the world
• Organizing and participating in recreational activities
• Keeping students safe and taking action for those sick or injured
• Resolving conflicts
• Serving as a leader

Qualifications:

• Creative and positive attitude
• Adaptability and willingness to complete hard work
• Demonstrated responsibility and leadership skills
• Ability to make decisions and enforce rules
• Previous teaching or tutoring experience desirable
• Summer camp experience or experience working with students ages 11–17 is also desirable

Salary: The starting compensation for Residential Counselors is $575/week plus full room and board.

Seeking students with college-level coursework in the following subject areas:

• Anthropology
• Archeology
• Biology
• Business
• Chemistry
• Creative Writing
• Computer Science
• Economics
• Engineering
• Environmental & Earth Sciences
• Expository Writing
• History
• Humanities
• International Relations
• Journalism
• Legal Studies
• Mathematics
• Music
• Philosophy
• Physics
• Playwriting
• Political Science
• Psychology
• Screenwriting
• Sociology

Apply for this position online: spcs.stanford.edu/summer/employment

A program of Stanford Pre-Collegiate Studies