Documentary Screening on Baseball for the Blind
Harvard University, Department of Physics

April 18, 2013, Thursday in Jefferson 250 @7:00 p.m.

Come and watch the award winning movie...

“The Renegades: A Beep Ball Story”

This award winning documentary tells the inspiring story of New England’s only blind baseball team, the Boston Renegades. It highlights the abilities of blind individuals, volunteerism, fierce competitiveness and asks the question, what is winning?

A Q&A session will follow: With players Aqil Sajjad and Joe McCormick along with fielding coach Justin Manjourides.

URL to the Boston Renegades website:
URL for the trailer on youtube:
URL for directions to event location: