Harvard freshmen & sophomores are invited to apply to become Harvard Ed Portal Mentors for Allston-Brighton students! Working one-on-one or in small groups with youth in grades 1-12, mentors:

• Create and facilitate curriculum in a variety of subjects;
• Participate in workshops to develop teaching and leadership skills;
• Join a dedicated community of undergraduate Mentors;
• Make a difference in the lives of youth in the community;
• Receive a stipend upon completion!

Deadline: Sunday, April 9 at midnight.
Late applications will be reviewed on rolling basis, space permitting.

QUESTIONS?

Contact Susan Johnson,
Assistant Director for Socially Engaged Learning
Derek Bok Center for Teaching and Learning
Harvard Ed Portal
susanjohnson@fas.harvard.edu

Harvard Ed Portal
224 Western Ave., Allston

The Harvard Ed Portal fosters lifelong learning and collaboration among Harvard University, Allston-Brighton neighbors, and the greater community.
edportal.harvard.edu/mentor